

"Stories"

Can't wait to get out of bed with so many things in my head
Think the day is always new
With so many things to tell you

Remember things you have said
Talk to you like I am on meds
Say things just to see you smile
Got Another Chu Story

Don't let me trouble you
Just being Pang F. Chu
Think we can save the world
So, we all can be happy

Please tell me how you feel
When I say, how are you?

Hope I am cute as Pikachu
Let me tell another story

I like stories especially the ones that make you cry
I just want to give a try
To make your life better before I die

Wish we could go back and do our first take
I'm sure along the way, we all made mistakes
All I know is that this story is so right
I keep making all these tales for you

Love means never having to say that you are sorry
Wish I could hold your hand and make nothing but memories
I can tell you so many nights of such stories
Happy, we always will have this history
Always be friends
