

Valuable as You

What we see in the dark
is best since we cannot judge.
Hate is fun for some.
To laugh and hurt who we are.
Too fat, too skinny, too light, or dark
Why do we all love to judge?
We all lost our touch.
and not willing to budge.

Judge me on how I treat you.
Not if my teeth are straight or not.
or if my watch is worth a lot
Talk to me. Give Listening a shot.

Say sad things just because of my race.
or I have fat around my waist.
Not how many lines on my face.
or hurt someone to get ahead.

Let's strive for a beautiful life.
not to hurt with words sharp as a knife.
To Live and say things out of spite.
Do you have trouble sleeping at night?
This life can go by so fast.
so, let's not treat each other like trash.

Not to outshine

Give me Sunshine

Give me a lifeline.

Not to confine

Remember no one is.
