

Choice

I see your words.

Rather hear your voice.

In today's craze world.

Why don't we make this choice.

Since days go fast.

Forget that name brand.

Don't want what's first class.

Just want time to not pass.

When I'm with you

Everything feels new.

Love hearing your views.

when I don't have a clue

What do we need?

if there is no greed

Will that make us all free?

We have that choice.

Chorus

Is like on the 7th Train,
Huge crowds in a tiny space
Still feel like you're all alone.
Yet is such a crowded place.

To work so you can pay.
for things to display
but you are away.
from what matters everyday

Is like on the seventh train.
Huge crowds in a tiny space.
Still feel like you're all alone.
Yet is such a crowded place.

To think we're not alone.
Because of our phones
Let's not have Heart of Stone

I know we got that choice.
