

The One

Verse #1

Wait for your call,
to do something that's fun.
Be a boy full of joy to be young.
When I wake up My heart just erupts
Think of you how we grew.
To wait for that bright sun to come.
You become that energy my heart succumbs.
When you text, I just jump.

CHORUS

What makes someone The One.
A person that you trust.
Your Heart knows One would.
Not be your mistake.
know just what it takes to Give you the Moon,
and yet give you room
to never assume and presume
what is the real truth what matters to you,
with the same concern to never expect returns
no bad dramatic turns
That's what makes The One

2nd Verse

When The One smile

Your whole worlds at ease.

Nothing's wrong Feeling Strong

Everywhere you belong.

The Wrongs

Are all gone.

You see this world as one happy song.

A Lottery, you just won.

CHORUS

What makes someone The One.

A person that you trust.

Your heart knows One would.

Not be your mistake.

Know just what it takes to Give you the Moon,

and yet give you room

to never assume and presume

what is the real truth what matters to you,

With the same concern to never expect returns

no bad dramatic turns

That's what makes The One

Piano (Bridge)

In today's world we are,
all crazy Alone is just so Damn easy.
With The One, every day will be a better day.
With the One, I have so much to say.
I don't want to live any other way.

Chorus Conclusion

Hope I will be the One.
A person that you can trust.
Never be your mistake.
And will do whatever it takes.
to give you the moon and will give you room to never assume and presume what is true.
Want you to be You.

Last Verse

Hope to be the only One.
A person you can trust.
and do what I could.
to treat you like The One should.
Can I be the One?

To Be the One
